VIRGINIA BAPTISTS.

Second Day's Session of the Association in the City of Richmond.

The State Mission Board-Its Sixth Annual Report Presented.

The Potomac Association-New Houses of Worship-Baptizing.

Progress Made Throughout the State-The Next Meeting of the Association.

Special Dispatch. RICHMOND, VA., June 1.-The general Baptist association of Virginia reassembled this morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Dr. J. L. Burrows, president in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. S. P. Huff. On motion of J. M. Pilcher, a committee was appointed to apportion the amount of $6,000, to be raised for the Sunday school and Bible board, between the district association. The report of the Sunday school and Bible board, published in The Republican yester-day, was adopted.

Gen. James G. Field, of the committee to whom was referred the treasurer's report, asked leave to report the following: That the report of the treasurer be adopted as submit-ted; that for the future the financial year close on the fifteenth of May next preceding the meeting of the association; that the mem-bers be notified of this action and fraternally requested to act in harmony thereto.

STATE MISSION BOARD. Mr. Henry K. Ellyson, of Richmond, pre-scuted the sixtieth annual report of the state sented the sixtieth annual report of the state mission board. It said: At your last annual meeting we reported forty-one missionaries in your service. For the year just closed we reported sixty, seven of them ministerial students of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary and Richmond college, employed in their vacation, and fifty-three under regular appointment; of these last named eighteen labored west of the Blue Ridge, axteen in Piedmont and middle Virginia, and nineteen in the tidewater districts. in the tidewater districts.

From the tabulated abstract of their labors it will be seen that our missionaries occupied 494 stations, preached 4,391 sermons, bap-tized 565 converts, aided pastors in meetings in which 1,101 others professed faith in Christ, made 8,386 visits for religious conver-sations and prayer, organized twenty-nine new Sunday schools and five new churches, completed six houses of worship, and are en-gaged in building eleven others, and that 129 Sunday schools are in operation at their mis-sion stations.

While these figures exhibit most gratifying results they do not show the full measure of progress in our missions, as seen in growing congregations and Sunday schools, more prayer meetings, better methods of church work, improvements to houses of worship, and increasing contributions to all our boards. Nor can we, in the proper limits of an annual report, furnish more than a brief outline of the colors of our faithful mission-aries, only enough to indicate the general character and scope of the work.

On the penusula, below Williamsburg, kev.
L. R. Millbourne baptized thirty-two, organized two Sunday schools, and is raising money to build a church at Newport News. Rev.
John William Jones, occupying West Point, baptized twenty, and speaks hopefully of the future of that church. Rev. R. H. Pitt, at the Venable Street church, Richmond, bap-tized fourteen. Our three missionaries in tized Fourteen. Our three missionaries in the Rappahannock association baptized twenty-three. In October last Rev. George J. Holday took charge of the church at Berkley, since which time its debt of $500 has been paid, its Sunday school doubled, and it has received a net increase of 25 members. At the West Point End church in Petersburg, Rev. C. H. Nash baptized 19, the Sunday school numbers 110 scholars, the membership of the church has increased from 42 to 87, and the house of worship has been so imof the church has increased from 42 to 87, and the house of worship has been so improved that it is now one of the most attractive suburban church buildings in the state. In other parts of the Portsmouth association, Rev. James E. Jones, in Southampton and Nausemond, baptized 17; Rev. C. V. Waugh, who was for nine months at suffolk and vicinity baptized 36; and Rev. J. F. Tottie in Princess Anne, organized two Tattle, in Princess Anne, organized two Sunday schools, and there were 31 conversions under his ministry. Four appintments were made in the Concord association to supply in part the great destitution in that district. In the Appomattox association Rev. J. A. Leslie reports 22 baptisms and 200 con-versions in his field. Rev. Georgo C. Abbitt reports 28 conversions in the same association. Our missionary in the James River association, Rev. S. J. Atkins, has seen fifty converts brought into the churches where he aided pastors. Rev. J. Lee Taylor baptized thirty in Franklin county, and completed the house of worship of Providence church. In its terof worship of Providence church. In its territory along the line of the Norfolk and Western railway, westof Lynchburg and contiguous to that road, Rev. W. D. Barr baptized seventeen in Bedford; Rev. E. A. Leonard, twelve in Craig; Rev. N. C. Burnett, thirty-eight in Montgomery; Rev. J. M. Luck, thirteen in Pulaski; Rev. M. H. Wilson, nine in Gilea; Rev. James Sweeney, eight and Rev. D. J. Harris, twenty-five in Tazewell; Rev. D. Bootwright, twelve in Smythe; Rev. J. R. B. Bootwright, twelve in Smythe: Rev. J. R. Harrison, seventy-three and Rev. A. Routh, forty-three in Washington county, and Rev. W. N. Buckles, twenty-one in Russell. IN THE POTOMAC ASSOCIATION.

Rev. S. M. Athey completed the house of worship at Marshall, Fauquier county, free of debt, organized a church, and haptized eight. Rev. Fleet H. James is building a house at Rappahannock station. Rev. Chas. T. Herndon has raised $2,200 toward building a house of worship at Leesburg, which it is T. Horndon has raised $2,200 toward building a house of worship at Leesburg, which, it is proposed, shall be commenced in June and finished in October, and Rev. W. S. Kerns baptized fourteen, and says that Occoquan church is in better condition than for many years. The Shenandoah association signal-izes the first year of its existence by renow-ing the effort to establish our cause in Win-chester. This board appointed Rev. J. C. Davidson to that city, and he is hopeful of

The house of worship at Glade Spring has been completed, and the church has also built a parsonage for Rev. J. R. Harrison.

Since our last report the treasurer of the general association has received for this board

$9,430.54, which, with the balance in his hands May 25, 1882, of $798.74, made our available resources for the year $10,229.28. He has paid on our account $8,972.13, leaving a balance of $1,257.15 in his hands to our credit. On the first of June there will be due our missionaries $4,098.27. After deducting the above balance in the treasury, $2,841.12 will be required to pay them.

This meeting of the general association marks the close of the first decade since your somi-centennial anniversary. During these ten years we have had in the field an average ten years we have had in the ned an average each year of 43 missionaries, who baptized 6,638 converts; aided pasters in meetings in which 12,602 professed faith in Christ; or-ganized 201 Sunday schools and 66 churches, and built 47 houses of worship.

REAL PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE in the evangelization of the state. Not so much as we had hoped, but when you recall the distressing financial panic of the first part of this period, and know that through it all we pressed steadily on with our work, the friends of this cause will thank God for what he has enabled us to do.

In conclusion the report says: "Your state missions have prospered; the denomination has kept in advance of the growing popula-tion. This is doing well. We might have done better and must do better. We theredone better and must do better. We incre-fore again appeal to you to furnish more means to send out more men to do the great work to which God has evidently called the Haptists of Virginia."

Pending the discussion of this report the association adjourned for recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION, The report of the state mission board came up for discussion after recess. Before adjuurnment for recess Rev. Dr. Pollard, Prof. Stenles L. Cocke, and Rev. John B. Turpin delivered interesting addresses.

Henry K. Ellyson, esq., president of the state mission board, in his report said that $15,000 was needed to successfully carry on this work.

Maryas Jones, esq., of Gloucester, and John
E. Massey spoke, and the association adjourned until to-night pending the consideration of the report of the state mission board.

Dr. J. T. Tichenor, of Atianta, Ga., corresponding secretary of the home mission board, delivered the principal address to-night. His subject was "Home Missions."

A Four-Hour Contest in An Old Rag

Shop Above Georgetown. About a mile and a half above Georgetown on Rock Creek road, is a large building formally used as a paper and rag warehouse, but at present unoccupied. Thursday night persons passing along the creek were puzzled to see the place lighted, and at hearing strange sounds issue forth. About forty men were inside intently fixing their attention on the does were fighting. The fight lasted until midnight, when the company entered carriages in waiting, and came back to this city. The affair was kept very quiet. One of the dogs belonged to an old citizen lying in Georgatown who is well known in One of the dogs belonged to an old citizen living in Georgetown, who is well known in this city; the other is the property of Terrence Flynn, of Flatbush, L. I. Twenty men, including the owner of the dog, came down from New York, and the rest of the party were friends of the Washington man. The fight was for $100. "Tobe," the Washington dog, was the first put in the pit, but "Larry," the New York dog soon followed, and both went to work with a will and kept at it, until half sinking with a will and kept at it, until half sinking with exhaustion they were parted. They were taken apart four times before the end of the fight, which terminated by "Tobe" being thrown on the floor with "Larry's" teeth in his throat. When the referee called time at the expiration of five minutes the owner of the Washington dog refused to continue the fight, and the stakes were awarded to the New York man. Both dogs were hor-ribly mangled, and the Washington dog died yesterday. A large amount of money changed

Shipping News.

Harbormaster Sutton reports the following arrivals: Schooners Ida L. Kennedy, Kennedy, from Kennebec, with 920 tons of ice for Great Falls Ice company; L. E. Williams, Adams, lumber for E. E. Col. and Mrs. Juan Lewis are pleasantly located at 1309 N street northwest. The colonel has no intention of giving up his literary pursuits, but will continue to write stories.

Mr. James H. Marr, the venerable chief clerk in the office of the first assistant postmaster general, yesterday entered upon the fifty-third year of con-secutive service in the Postoffice department. He is in his 54th year.

Rev. Father Sebastian Rabbia, of the Church of St. Mary Stella Maris, of Baltimore, and pleasantly remembered in Washington when stationed at St. Peter's prior to 1878, has been transferred to St. Mary's church, Rockville, Md. Mr. William Tlighman is here on a visit to his grandmother, widow of the late Dr. C. C. Cox, at 725 Tweotich street northwest. Mr. T. is half owner of a pineappia plantation in southern Florida, the first ever established in the state.

Mr. A. C. Stevens arrived in town yesterday from Minneapolis to visit his young wife, who is very ill. Mrs. Stevens is the eldest daughter of Paymaster Robert Platt, of the United States navy, and has numerous sympathising friends in this city.

Mrs. Senator Blair leaves for Flymouth, N. H. next Monday, about two weeks sooner than she had intended, on account of the senator, who is very anxious for her to leave at that time. Their son, who is attending school, will be here about three weeks longer.

Mr. S. P. Rounds, government printer, will not take a vacation until Aug. 1, when, accompanied by Mrs. Rounds, he will go to Denver to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rothacker in their new and elegant home. Mr. and Mrs. Rothacker are located on Brenton Terrace, Denver city. It will be remembered that the citizens of Denver met Mr. and Mrs. Rothacker at the depot on their arrival from Chicago, and escorted them to this beautiful home which they presented to the bride and groom.

In polite society the recipient of an invitation concluding with the letters 'R. S. V. P." understands thereby that a reply is required; or, as the French would say, "Repondez s'il vous plait." Last year our opening day was a grand affair-a most pronounced success. This year we concluded to do away with the ancient commercial custom of a FORMAI opening, because we are ALWAYS prepared for customers before they are ready for their NEW Clothes. We do, however, send out invitations to our well-wishers, and to-day, although we do not inform you in the usual polite form we would be pleased to see as many of our Friends and Customers-Strangers too-as may find time to call upon us.

Doyou ever fall into them when reading advertisements of Suits of Clothing for less than you would pay for a pair of Pants? I have nothing in Suits for less than $10; have to sell only Reliable Clothing, for I am the only clothing house in the city that gives a legal written guarantee.

Upon reflection, don't you think if you were to purchase one of those cheap suits it would be prudent to buy one of the BRIGHTON SUITS for $15, to carry with you in case the other suit should blow to pieces? You know this is the time of the year when we have blows.
